how long babe how long now half the evening the train been gone for how long how long babe how long now come back baby darling please don't go now the way I love you you'll never know so come back darling let's talk it over one more time now my heart is full of sorrow (full of sorrow) eyes a full of tears (full of tears) now you've been gone 24 hours (24 hours) seems like a million years (million years) to come back darling can we talk it over one more time now I can hear that train whistle blowing can not see your train now it's deep down in my heart just like ache and pain for how long how long babe how long now tell me darling what can I do to change your mind ohh you keep me worrying baby and boggle all the time so come back darling let's talk it over one more time babe how long

now you know this world wasn't made in one day now can we talk it over before you go away

so come back darling let's talk it over one more time.

now I am going to sing this time baby and I ain't going to sing no more (sing no more) now my time is rolling around (rolling around) I believe I got to go (believe I got to go)

how long baby how long
