<http://www.resistinggi.com/UserFiles/File/MyRocKnRoLL.mp3> you want a part of me you want the whole thing you want to feel something more than I could ever bring you want it badly you want it tangled I want to feel something more than I was strangled I fell in love with the sweet sensation I gave my heart to a simple chord I gave my soul to a new religion whatever happened to you whatever happened to our rock n roll whatever happened to my rock n roll she wants it hallow she wants it tainted she wants to feel something more than she was naked you want to hide away you're scared to touch it I want to feel something more than I care to take I fell in love with the sweet sensation I gave my heart to a simple chord I gave my soul to a new religion whatever happened to you whatever happened to our rock n roll whatever happened to my rock n roll...she wants your image she wants your kiss she wants to get inside your head and tell it like it is you want it badly you want it so complete I want to feel something more cause I can't fucking breathe I fell in love with the sweet sensation I gave my heart to a simple chord I gave my soul to a new religion whatever happened to you whatever happened to our rock n roll whatever happened to my

ROCK N ROLL
