no love no nothing until my baby comes home no sir no nothing as long as baby must roam I promised him I’d wait for him until even hades frost I’m lonesome heaven knows but what I said still goes no love no nothing and that’s a promise I’ll keep no fun with no one

I’m getting plenty of sleep my heart’s on strike and though it’s like an empty honeycomb no love no sir no nothing until my baby comes home...no love no sir no nothing until my baby comes home
