<http://www.resistinggi.com/UserFiles/File/NowUGone.mp3>

now you're gone now you're gone you hurt me bad I'm all too sad I didn't know I loved you so now you're gone now you're gone now you're gone you had a plan another man went off to heart I could of died (there you gone) now you're gone (there you gone) now you're gone let's go to the fridge right-heaven...

what shall I do my world is blue it isn't true my life is through now you're gone now you're gone now I want you back how do I act how do I make them tact how do I get respect now you're gone and I never loved nobody that's been mean to me I got a heart full of stone and I hate the misery and then you and then you and then you and then you came along to spoil me more and now you're gone and now you're

GONE
